

Answers - Business English Phrases Connected to Winter

walking on thin ice

snowball

tip of the iceberg

snowed under

break the ice

1. When you call a potential client for the first time, it is important to break the ice with some small talk.
2. Our client was not happy with our previous project. We are clearly walking on thin ice. We need to deliver the next project successfully otherwise we will lose our client.
3. Unfortunately, I am really snowed under with this new event that we are preparing, so I have to cancel our meeting later.
4. Her YouTube channel started off very slowly, but the number of subscribers started to snowball after she started to become more confident in her content and more expressive in front of the camera.
5. Chat GPT is a very useful AI tool. However, this is really just the tip of the iceberg. There are hundreds of other really useful AI tools to boost your productivity.

